

Hertfordshire Libraries Ready Reads Service

We all know how important it is for children to have access to books. Despite the current lockdown situation, Hertfordshire libraries are open for Ready Reads.

Families can order books for their children and themselves using the online form and then collect from a selected library.

If you are unable to access online services, please contact Hertfordshire libraries on 0300 123 4049 and a member of the team will be able to help fill out the form.

Due to the current situation, some families have not felt able to visit the library for a while, this is an easy way to borrow books. Also, the requests service is fully operational so for specific books these can be ordered through the catalogue and picked up in the same way.

There is also have an extensive online eBook and eAudio library BorrowBox

Never have books been more important, not only supporting children with their reading and education but also with their health and wellbeing, enabling them to leave behind the daily stresses and escape into imaginary worlds.

You can find the latest information about Hertfordshire libraries re-opening plans and the online services on their website.
